The Service Bureau has for sale the following material previously announced:

THE GREEK TRADITION IN SCULPTURE

This is a 142-page pamphlet prepared by Walter R. Agard. This material originally appeared as No. 7 in a series of studies published by the Johns Hopkins Press in 1930 under the editorship of David M. Robinson. The pamphlet contains 34 full-page pictures with descriptive text under the following headings: Greek Sculpture, The Sculpture of Rome, The Lingering Tradition, The Renaissance, Classicism and Neoclassicism, The Modern Debt to Greek Sculpture. 75¢

A GUIDANCE PAMPHLET

"What about Latin?" is the title of an attractive twelve-page pamphlet prepared by a special committee of the American Philological Association. It should be placed in the hands of every adviser of students in our secondary schools. A copy will be sent free to any school counselor on receipt of a stamped and addressed 4 1/8" by 9 1/2" envelope. Additional copies may be obtained at 10¢ each postpaid, or 5¢ each in quantities of ten or more.
